

Cosumnes River College Hawk Cares Program

50% of Community College students reported food insecurity.
60% reported housing insecurity.
19% were homeless in the previous year.

CRC's Hawk Cares Program addresses these needs and more.

Homes for Hawks serves as a housing resource hub to current and future CRC students. This project aims to provide relevant, accurate, and sustainable housing information and resources to students.

Hawk Spot Food Pantry is a partnership between the Sacramento Food Bank and CRC to provide food and basic necessities for students experiencing food insecurity. The program aims to provide a safe space to support student wellness and to reduce the impact of food insecurity.

Hawk Swap Clothing Exchange provides access to new or gently used clothing to students in need.

Showers for Homeless Students provides access to enrolled students to use the campus' shower facilities in the Small Gym.

Student Support Emergency Loan is currently in development to provide financial assistance to students who are temporarily in need of support to address housing need, food insecurities, medical treatment, or any other one-time unexpected emergency

Textbook Scholarship provides a $250 gift card to CRC's Hawks Nest bookstore to 15 CRC students through a textbook drawing during the fall and spring semesters.

Gowns for Grads was created by the CRC Alumni Association and Office of Philanthropy to support students with free access to graduation caps and gowns.

