CULTURE AND IDENTITY
PRESENTATION / DOCUMENTARY

OCT. 1, 2020, 4PM-6PM
ZOOM: HTTPS://CCCCONFER.ZOOM.US/J/99791343316

Senon Monreal Valadez, PH.D, Emeritus Professor in Anthropology and Education at California State University, Sacramento. In addition, Dr. Valadez’s repertoire includes Spanish, Early Childhood Education and Chicano Studies.

Dr. Valadez is the executive producer and director of the Chicano Movimiento and Mexican American Education Oral History project. Intended to collect and preserve the oral histories of the human experience, personal histories, and contributions of people living during the Chicano movement era. He has been involved with many initiatives, projects, and publish contributions that recognize the contributions made by Chicanos/ Latinos made during the civil rights, social, and cultural movement of the 1960’s.

Speaker: Senon Monreal Valadez, PH.D

Hosted by CRC Puente Project
For more information contact:
Aselia Valadez Melo, Puente Project Coordinator
Email: meloa@crc.losrios.edu / Phone:(916) 691-7348